Ball Her (A BBW Bad Boys In Her Bed Menage Romance, Billionaire Boss Versus Hollywood Star)

Synopsis

A billionaire and a Hollywood star, neither of us is Prince Charming. That's okay because Gabby Pryce isn't Cinderella. She's our Everything Girl, the one woman we can love for life. Before we thoroughly woo and wed her, we need to know she can handle two powerful males with twisted tastes and dark pasts. Starting tonight, we're going to break her in and break her down, arousing and satisfying her beautiful, voluptuous body until she's addicted to us and craving the next thrust, the next slow sucking kiss, more than life itself. This extended length novella features a BBW, her billionaire boss and a Hollywood action star, with a toe curling amount of domination and submission and a happy for now ending that leaves the door open and the light on for future installments.

Customer Reviews

Gabby, Beckett, and Jack had this book smoking! I never had sex scenes so hot I had to take a break, I think I needed a cigarette myself. Gabby is insecure with some part of herself, what she doesn't know is that someone else likes her just the way she is. That someone also has a friend who is just as infatuated with her. The job of getting Gabby to believe that they love her just the way she is was a very steamy job.

Gabby has worked for Beckett for three and a half years and sheâ€™s loved him for three of those years. But what would a hot billionaire see in a large woman like her? A lot apparently. When he calls her to bring an important package to him, she doesnâ€™t realize that sheâ€™s going to a sex club or that sheâ€™s his main attraction. While there, she thinks she catches the eye of famous actor Jace. What she doesnâ€™t know is that itâ€™s all a set up for Beckett and Jace so they can finally let her know that Beckett loves her and Jace wants her too. But can she believe them?

She is their Everything Girl! Everything they've ever wanted in a woman. Although this (D/s) is not my favorite genre, I really like Christa Wick as an author. I've never been disappointed in her stories. In this one, Gabby's lack of confidence in herself leads her to doubt what is happening in her relationship with Beckett and Jace. Her journey of discovery is fascinating to read. The power she has over these two men is apparent to the reader, but not to her. I hope there is a follow-up to this story, because I'm not done with these people yet.

I've read most of Christa's books. The story is alright. In all honesty being that I've read a lot of her work, I feel like I've read this story before from her. She tends to use a lot of the same terms of endearments in her books and the heroine (to me) is the same woman in her books with different hair color and eye colors, but their persona is the same (again, to me). If you haven't read her work before, then I advise you to read it. Her stories and plots are really good and they keep you turning the page. And that's always a good thing! But for me, I would like to see her switch it up a little. I don't want to keep feeling like déjà vu when I read her work.

Gabby, Beckett & Jace Gabby worked for Beckett whom she secretly loved. Beckett calls Gabby late at night telling her to accept the envelope that a courier was bringing to her and come to his house. Well it wasn't his house but a BdsM party. Gabby could not believe all she had to go through to get to Beckett to give him the envelope...needless to say that the client was Jace. But, little did Gabby know what they had planned and since she loved Beckett she would do what he wanted...needless to say it's gets hot and steamy.....you have to buy the book to see what happens

I've read a lot of what Christa Wick has written and have enjoyed everything so far. In Ball Her, Gabby is unsure of herself and doesn't believe she's desirable. Beckett has done such a good job of hiding his attraction that she doesn't trust it. Add his hot friend to the mix, who's also interested, and she just can't believe what's happening. She has to decide if she wants to submit, both body and heart. You end up with a hot menage with real characters.

This is a very good story. This is an unusual erotic story. I could have read another 150 pages of this story, but I'm not saying it wasn't complete. It was complete and satisfying to read. There was a lot of bdsm stuff in here and a lot of explicit sex. I wish I knew the men's backstory together a bit more. I also wish the heroine had dealt with the emotional aspects of the relationship more gradually.

I really like Christa Wick and this is a pretty good read. I just wanted more. I think there was a lot of potential with this book. I would like to have known much more about Beckett and Jace. What binds them together? How does Gabby really fit into the equation? I like HEA, this was a HFN and left me feeling like I was missing something.
