Customer Reviews

I must say the writing was unique, entertaining and real. The first book about a millionaire in hiding on a ranch in the protection program by the FBI. I found the characters to be real and romantic; He comes to value all the things he took for granted in his other life. the host family was kind and inviting with genuine warmth; All the characters were strong and true to life;the second story again my opinion is the same as above. It takes the father who had build a successful business to die and name his youngest son in his will to take over the company freezing his assets to accomplish his goal. He though he hated his father for reasons in the book and had not seen his family for over a decade he still harbored a lot of resentment towards his deceased father. At the funeral he is introduced to the lovely warehouse manager of the business and the rest of the story they become allies and try to rescue the business from his lying and cheating brother and ex girlfriend, Now the warehouse manager has her own story she is guardian to her little niece abandoned by her sister. lives with an abusive mother who is an alcoholic who verbally and on occasion is physically abuses both her and her niece. the strain is getting to her and she reaches out to a brother who also took off to become a priest. He could not stand the abuse as well and that factored into why he left. But he manages to try and help his sister to try and get the mother into rehab. but to no avail. the mother falls into a stupor and because of a lit cigarette burns the house down with no where to go the male lead comes to her rescue and love blossoms for them. She tries to fight it but in the end she falls in love.
